How can we listen to God?

By reading his word in the bible. When we read and study the Bible, and God helps us to understand it.

No matter what happens today, remember you can always depend on God. He is always ready to pay attention to you and help you.

Always, always trust him to give you wisdom, knowledge and understanding.

Please read Proverbs 2: v 1-13 for more about wisdom.

That wisdom will protect you and understanding will protect you.

Barbara is back

The New Zealand government has stopped Australia/New Zealand quarantine free travel bubble for 8 weeks as Coronavirus is bad in Australia.

Lots of New Zealand people made a quick return to New Zealand.

Johanna was the only person to know that Barbara was coming back before the bubble closed. She kept it quiet and we were all surprised to see her.

Welcome back Barbara

ADCF is on the move

We have been advised that Rosebank Peninsula Church building is to be sold. ADCF needs to move by 31 October 2021.

The committee is looking at a new home for ADCF.

Report on the Social at Terry's place on 7 August

7 people had afternoon tea at Pinesong Retirement Village with Terry in the lounge of the main building. A lovely lady named Hazel was sitting in the lounge by herself and soon joined our group. The wonderful thing was the café closed before we got there but they stayed around to make sure we were supplied with afternoon tea.

Pinesong is a beautiful area, well laid out. Some of us were adventurous and walked around the Village.

Lovely afternoon and thank you Terry for letting us come to visit you at Pinesong.

Birthdays coming up

Tricia Morrison - 24 August

David Wilcox - 13 September

Peter Musgrave – 19 September

Quiz answers

1 Joshua sent 2 spies into the city of Jericho.

The name of the woman the spies stayed with was Rahab. She was a prostitute.

3. The special that the spies told Rahab to do was hang a red rope out her window of her house in the city wall. All the people in the house would be saved from death when the Israelites came to take the city.
