Message from Chairperson, Glenn

This month of December is the Christmas Festival in full swing everywhere in the world. We always big thanks to our Lord for Jesus came to our world to save people. These days seem to come around quickly each year while we have learned lots of God's word to share with brothers and sisters. Don't change yourselves to be like the difficult people of this world. Remember that Give your lives to God. The one God has shown us great mercy and Jesus is most important to us to safe our life. We always remember how to pleasing have Christmas Sacrifices. The

Christmas is kindness warmth and affection as people are showing they care also for Peace, Hope and Love. Your Christmas will be blessed with everything wonderful and new year filled with JOY. Please take care of Christmas holiday. God Bless you. Glenn. □

Barbara retired from the committee at AGM

Michelle gave her a bunch of flowers in November when they saw each other.

Barbara says thank you for lovely flowers as farewell. Beautiful lilies.

From Johanna, Pastoral Care

Wishing everyone a safe and Blessed Christmas and New Year.

Please keep in contact with each other. Especially visiting people like Des, Tom and Rhona, Wendy, people who are on their own or live alone. Maybe send a letter of encouragement.

Meet up for a cuppa together or sit somewhere nice to enjoy nature.

At this time of year, we celebrate and remember our Lord Jesus human birth and many miracles that happened during his human life on earth.

Please remember to have time reading Gods word (in the Bible). Remember to take things to God in prayer and give Thanks & Praise to God.
